Training Conditions

SIGMA Ingenieurgesellschaft mbH, Bertha-von-Suttner-Allee 19, 59423 Unna, Germany

Group training courses

The group training takes place as a face-to-face event or as online training.

The group of participants is made up of participants from different companies, depending on the number of registrations received.

Recording and distribution of the training in audio or video format are not permitted.

Training license

Participants receive a training license and, in the case of online training, online access. The training license is limited in time. The right to use the training license is limited to the training content and the preparation and follow-up of the training. Use beyond this is not permitted. The transfer of access data and training documents to third parties is not permitted.

Withdrawal and termination by the participant

The participant may withdraw free of charge up to the 14th calendar day before the first day of training. If the withdrawal takes place within 14 calendar days before the first day of the seminar, the full training price is due. The organizer must be notified of the withdrawal in writing.

Only participants registered by name may take part in the training courses.

If the registered participant is unable to attend, a replacement person may attend the booked training course at no extra cost.

Rebooking to another training date is at the discretion of the organizer.

Cancellation of the event by the organizer

SIGMA reserves the right to cancel the event up to 14 days before the scheduled date at the latest if the number of participants is too low. Training fees already paid will be refunded in full. Further liability and compensation claims are excluded.

Cancellation of the event

If the event is canceled for reasons for which SIGMA is responsible, SIGMA will offer one or more alternative dates. If the event is canceled in whole or in part for reasons for which the registrant or participant is responsible, there is no entitlement to an alternative date or repetition/reworking of the training content.

If the event is canceled for reasons for which SIGMA is not responsible (e.g. force majeure), SIGMA shall not be liable for any damages incurred. Training fees already paid will be refunded in full. Further liability and compensation claims are excluded.
